VOL. III. NO. 248. CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, OCTOBER 17-18, 1897. PRICE, 5 CTS.

MAY W DEFEATS GATH.

The Speed Stakes was Saturday's Harlem racing piece. Out of it came a good race and one of the greatest surprises of the meeting. Five came out and Gath was the natural favorite. His price was always quite liberal—7 to 10 or so. Flora Louise was as naturally the second choice. Algareta and Imp were both well backed on the one-two-three basis. Only May W was neglected. At some stages of the betting the Western filly was as good as 30 to 1. At the second break they were sent away badly and in two divisions. May W and Imp were the favored ones. Gath and Flora Louise were in the rear. The pace was terrific, and Caywood, who rode Gath, used the horse far too much in his effort to get up. May W had the rail and Narvaez bugged it on the turns. Rounding into the stretch Gath's white face was in front and he looked like a winner at the three-sixteenth pole. But his early efforts and the weight told at the end. May W ran as truly as steel, and, standing the whip and spur like an aristocrat won by a short head. Gath was the same distance in front of Flora Louise, and Imp, who was said to have been interfered with on the turn, was lapped on. Flora Louise was disqualified for interfering with Imp.

Tommy Burns had a good day, riding four winners. He rode a keen and skillful finish on Milwaukee in the third race, beating the 1 to 6 favorite Laureate by a neck.

Four of the six races fell to the favorites and the ring had its troubles.

Tom Ryan took two purses with Ace and Sir Dilke, both at odds on. Ace had a hard time beating Harry Gwynn, but Sir Dilke won easily and all the way.

Berclair's easy win in the last race was a shock to form players. He was woefully beaten off in his last race. But the track was mnddy and not to his liking then.

PEE TAYLOR OFFENDS AGAIN.

In the Inter-Ocean, through which he pesters the public, Pee Taylor refers to the colt Daily Racing Form as "a well named dog." Cowardly spleen led Pee Taylor into his error over the colt. Normally, both by pedigree and performance, Pee Taylor is qualified to judge dogs. The kennel is his own place. For those whose sense of smell and sight Pee Taylor offends, there is a suggestion of relief in the idea of a fund to buy a kennel and some soap for Pee Taylor. Within a dog-box, well washed, gagged to stem the flood of lies which he steadily emits, and tied to prevent further endorsement of "phony" checks, Pee Taylor would still be a bother; but the ugliness in which the fellow abounds, might be reduced.

HARLEM TO CLOSE FOR PACERS.

The Harlem track will be closed next Wednesday, so as not to conflict with the special efforts of Star Pointer and Joe Patchen against the pacing records and the general harness racing around it at Ingalls' Park, Joliet, Ill. A display of the attractions for the day is on the second page of DAILY RACING FORM.

GENE LEIGH TO SELL OUT.

Busy old Leigh is to sell out all he has at La Belle. He has plenty of notes and little cash. Then, too, he has had a bad betting year. He declares of course to buy again in the spring and race what he buys. There is no chance that he would do anything else. He loves racing and its brisk movement and could not be pensioned away from the sport for $50,000 a year.

Winner—B. g. 5, by Fabulous—Punnie.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third cleverly; fourth driving hard. Ace was the best. He was almost thrown over the fence by Santa Cruz on the far turn. With a stronger boy Harry Gwynn would have won. Kitley could not do him justice the last sixteenth. He took the long route and ran a good race. Briggs luckily got through on the rail and saved a lot of ground. He is improving. Helen H Gardner had little or no speed. Throw her race out. Martin K was out off and interfered with on every turn.

Scratched—Pitfall, 97.
Overweights—Briggs, 5 pounds; Hessville, 3.

Winner—Br. g. 4, by Montrose—George H.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden; the next three were driving to the limit. W C T was well ridden. Caywood took him back and avoided the terrific pace. He rode cleverly with his hands and heels the last eighth. Counter Tenor and Plumeria set a terrific pace. Both suffered from it when the pinch came. Counter Tenor was evidently short. Watch him. He pulled up sound. Harry McCouch, pocketed the early part of it. finished strong. Plumeria showed a lot of speed, but stopped to nothing at the end. Five furlongs is about her limit. Silver Set was sharply cut off on the far turn. Diggs ran a good race.

Scratched—Mamie Callan, 100; Barnato, 103; Major General, 107; Hush, 105; Tern, 100; Marie Woodlands, 105; Olivia L, 100; Lucy Belle, 105; Miss Young, 105; Virgie Dixon, 105; Warren Point, 105; Jersey Lad, 103.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Free Knight—Fantress.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. The first two were driving hard the last eighth. Burns rode a beautiful race on Milwaukee. It was the ride that won. Burns waited long with Milwaukee and made his move at the half mile pole. He used his whip the last quarter and just got up in the closing strides. It was an extremely popular victory. Laureate dislikes a route. Caywood's ride on him was good. He is a coward and will not stand a drive.

Scratched—Bing Binger, 95; Moncreith, 98; David Tenny, 96.

Overweights—Moncreith, 3 pounds.

Winner—Ch. c. 4, by Pirate of Penzance—Dilsey.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won eased up; the next three were hard ridden. Dilke was the best and Burns outclassed the other riders. He got away in front and galloped all the way. Waldo, who rode Hot Stuff, did well for a youngster of his size. He held the filly's head up and helped her some the last sixteenth. Sandoval, close to the rails all the way, was obliged to go wide on the turns, but finished strong. The ride on Lady Inez was miserable. Throw her race out. Weaver did everything but fall off.

Overweights—Atlantic King, 5 pounds; Terranet, 4; Sandoval, 4; Lady Inez, 3.

*Disqualified for foul. Time, 24, 48, 1:01, 1:18.

Winner—B. f, 3, by Eagle Plume—Froila.

Post 3 minutes. Start poor. The first four were under keen pressure. Gath was the best and with an equal break could not have lost. He was off last and obliged to run around his field on the back stretch. Caywood made entirely too much use of him the first half. Imp and May

W were favored at the start. May W is good now and stood a drive for a quarter of a mile. Imp was impeded by Flora Louise at the head of the stretch and the latter was properly disqualified.

Scratched—Paul Griggs, 108; David Tenny, 105; Presbyterian, 87; Abuse, 113.

Winner—B. g, 4, by Leonatus—Mary C.

Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won easily; the next three were doing their best. Berclair was the best and never extended. He is a shifty horse. Burns was sitting straight up on him all the way. Serena ran her usual honest race. Tranby was pinched out of it on the first turn and made up a lot of ground. He is a useful horse. Moncreith ran a disappointing race. He was hampered and hedged in on the back stretch. Mandolina was much used at the post. Rewarder dislikes a route.

Scratched—Milwaukee, 95; Necedah, 103.

 Start good. Won handily. Tripping was the best. She showed superior form and has much class. Lobengula came fast at the end under good handling. Marshall was badly placed throughout and suffered from a weak finish. Penny was ridden badly. He should be waited with first part. Break o'Day hung on well. Domitor quit after showing a great burst of speed. Ameer is of no account here.

 Start good. Won driving. Flushing was best. He was choked to a standstill and thrown off his stride for the first mile. Wood Pigeon was perfectly handled and waited with. He finished strong. Scarlet was killed off in making his run too soon. He also suffered in making the pace with Flushing. Mars Chan came with a rush at the end and is good. Mike Dwyer bought Flushing before the race, paying $1500 for him.

Time, 25, 50, 1:15, 1:29, 1:42.
 Winner—Ch. g, 4, by Farandole—Monardo.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. The first five were all driving hard. Mazarin was tiring at the end and Forsythe, Elsie D and Lula Fry closing fast. Roger B's race had a withered aspect. Sauterne can do better. Loneta ran far below the notch. She had no speed and was evidently less than fit.

Scratched—Miss Ross, 100; A B C, 105; Peacemaker, 109.
